Today you will be thinking about the character called Esther.

Think about these questions…

Who do we think she is?
Where might she have come from?
Why do you think she is living in the junkyard?

What is she like on the outside?

What does she look like?
Can you describe her face?
Can you describe her clothes?
How would you describe the way she moves?

What is she like on the inside?

What do you think her personality is like?
Do you think she is happy?
Is she a greedy person?
