

Letter to the Chief Dungeon Guard

I can explore the features of a persuasive formal letter.

Read the sections of the letter shown below. Cut out the sections and place them in the correct order on the letter template.

Firstly, I would like to say that I am fearful for my own health and that of my brother in this appalling environment. The dungeon hardly gets any light and the conditions are unsanitary. We are cramped into a small space within these murky walls and it is such a distressing place to live. Do you really think this is a suitable place for sons of Tsar Vislav to be kept?

For the reasons mentioned above, I really feel I need to be transferred from this ghastly and distressing dungeon environment. I hope that you will give careful consideration to my request to improve conditions for myself and my brother, Dmitry. Thank you for taking the time to read my letter.

Chief Dungeon Guard's Office,
Tsar Vislav's Palace,
Golden Apple Kingdom,
Russia

Prince Vasily

7th June 1476

Letter to the Chief Dungeon Guard

Another reason I think we should be moved from here concerns the food we are provided with. It is inedible and we will surely die without a more nourishing diet. Despite the extreme hunger we are suffering, my brother and I cannot bring ourselves to eat most of the rotten food we are given. Flies often swarm around the disgusting offerings we are presented with and I am sure this food would make us very ill. Although we are prisoners and can no longer expect to eat like princes, it cannot be denied that the food we are given is not fit for human consumption.

Yours sincerely,

My name is Prince Vasily and I am writing to you because I am very concerned about conditions in this dungeon and would like to see an improvement. In this letter, I will explain to you my reasons for asking for our surroundings to be improved and I hope that you will be able to help me. Ideally, my brother and I would like to be moved to another, more suitable, place of imprisonment.

Dear Mr Stepanov,

The Dark Dungeon,
Tsar Vislav's Palace,
Golden Apple Kingdom,
Russia

Letter to the Chief Dungeon Guard

Address of sender here →

← Address of recipient here

Letter to the Chief Dungeon Guard Answers

The Dark Dungeon,
Tsar Vislav's Palace,
Golden Apple Kingdom,
Russia

Chief Dungeon Guard's Office,
Tsar Vislav's Palace,
Golden Apple Kingdom,
Russia

7th June 1476

Dear Mr Stepanov,

My name is Prince Vasily and I am writing to you because I am very concerned about conditions in this dungeon and would like to see an improvement. In this letter, I will explain to you my reasons for asking for our surroundings to be improved and I hope that you will be able to help me. Ideally, my brother and I would like to be moved to another, more suitable, place of imprisonment.

Firstly, I would like to say that I am fearful for my own health and that of my brother in this appalling environment. The dungeon hardly gets any light and the conditions are unsanitary. We are cramped into a small space within these murky walls and it is such a distressing place to live. Do you really think this is a suitable place for sons of Tsar Vislav to be kept?

Another reason I think we should be moved from here concerns the food we are provided with. It is inedible and we will surely die without a more nourishing diet. Despite the extreme hunger we are suffering, my brother and I cannot bring ourselves to eat most of the rotten food we are given. Flies often swarm around the disgusting offerings we are presented with and I am sure this food would make us very ill. Although we are prisoners and can no longer expect to eat like princes, it cannot be denied that the food we are given is not fit for human consumption.

For the reasons mentioned above, I really feel I need to be transferred from this ghastly and distressing dungeon environment. I hope that you will give careful consideration to my request to improve conditions for myself and my brother, Dmitry. Thank you for taking the time to read my letter.

Yours sincerely,

Prince Vasily

Letter to the Chief Dungeon Guard

I can explore the features of a persuasive formal letter.

Read the sections of the letter shown below, then cut out the sections and place them in the correct order on the letter template. Fill in any missing gaps with suitable emotive adjectives.

Firstly, I would like to say that I am fearful for my own health and that of my brother in this _____ environment. The dungeon hardly gets any light and the conditions are _____. We are cramped into a small space within these _____ walls and it is such a _____ place to live. Do you really think this is a suitable place for sons of Tsar Vislav to be kept?

For the reasons mentioned above, I really feel I need to be transferred from this _____ and _____ dungeon environment. I hope that you will give careful consideration to my request to improve conditions for myself and my brother, Dmitry. Thank you for taking the time to read my letter.

Chief Dungeon Guard's Office,
Tsar Vislav's Palace,
Golden Apple Kingdom,
Russia

Prince Vasily

7th June 1476

Letter to the Chief Dungeon Guard

Another reason I think we should be moved from here concerns the food we are provided with. It is _____ and we will surely die without a more nourishing diet. Despite the extreme hunger we are suffering, my brother and I cannot bring ourselves to eat most of the _____ food we are given. Flies often swarm around the _____ offerings we are presented with and I am sure this food would make us very ill. Although we are prisoners and can no longer expect to eat like princes, it cannot be denied that the food we are given is not fit for human consumption.

Yours sincerely,

My name is Prince Vasily and I am writing to you because I am very concerned about conditions in this dungeon and would like to see an improvement. In this letter, I will explain to you my reasons for asking for our surroundings to be improved and I hope that you will be able to help me. Ideally, my brother and I would like to be moved to another, more suitable, place of imprisonment.

Dear Mr Stepanov,

The Dark Dungeon,
Tsar Vislav's Palace,
Golden Apple Kingdom,
Russia

Letter to the Chief Dungeon Guard

A large, empty rectangular box intended for writing the letter.

Letter to the Chief Dungeon Guard Answers

The Dark Dungeon,
Tsar Vislav's Palace,
Golden Apple Kingdom,
Russia

Chief Dungeon Guard's Office,
Tsar Vislav's Palace,
Golden Apple Kingdom,
Russia

7th June 1476

Dear Mr Stepanov,

My name is Prince Vasily and I am writing to you because I am very concerned about conditions in this dungeon and would like to see an improvement. In this letter, I will explain to you my reasons for asking for our surroundings to be improved and I hope that you will be able to help me. Ideally, my brother and I would like to be moved to another, more suitable, place of imprisonment.

Firstly, I would like to say that I am fearful for my own health and that of my brother in this appalling environment. The dungeon hardly gets any light and the conditions are unsanitary. We are cramped into a small space within these murky walls and it is such a distressing place to live. Do you really think this is a suitable place for sons of Tsar Vislav to be kept?

Another reason I think we should be moved from here concerns the food we are provided with. It is inedible and we will surely die without a more nourishing diet. Despite the extreme hunger we are suffering, my brother and I cannot bring ourselves to eat most of the rotten food we are given. Flies often swarm around the disgusting offerings we are presented with and I am sure this food would make us very ill. Although we are prisoners and can no longer expect to eat like princes, it cannot be denied that the food we are given is not fit for human consumption.

For the reasons mentioned above, I really feel I need to be transferred from this ghastly and distressing dungeon environment. I hope that you will give careful consideration to my request to improve conditions for myself and my brother, Dmitry. Thank you for taking the time to read my letter.

Yours sincerely,

Prince Vasily

Letter to the Chief Dungeon Guard

I can explore the features of a persuasive formal letter.

Read the sections of the letter shown below, then cut them out and place them in the correct order on the letter template. You should also add more detail to back up each argument made. Remember to include some emotive adjectives and aim to include at least one rhetorical question.

Firstly, I would like to say that I am fearful for my own health and that of my brother in this appalling environment. _____

For the reasons mentioned above, I really feel I need to be transferred from this _____ and _____ dungeon environment. I hope that you will give careful consideration to my request to improve conditions for myself and my brother, Dmitry. Thank you for taking the time to read my letter.

Chief Dungeon Guard's Office,

Tsar Vislav's Palace,

Golden Apple Kingdom,

Russia

Prince Vasily

7th June 1476

Letter to the Chief Dungeon Guard

Another reason I think we should be moved from here concerns the food we are provided with. It is inedible and we will surely die without a more nourishing diet. _____

Yours sincerely,

My name is Prince Vasily and I am writing to you because I am very concerned about conditions in this dungeon and would like to see an improvement. In this letter, I will explain to you my reasons for asking for our surroundings to be improved and I hope that you will be able to help me. Ideally, my brother and I would like to be moved to another, more suitable, place of imprisonment.

Dear Mr Stepanov,

The Dark Dungeon,
Tsar Vislav's Palace,
Golden Apple Kingdom,
Russia

Letter to the Chief Dungeon Guard

A large, empty rectangular box intended for writing the letter.

Letter to the Chief Dungeon Guard Answers

The Dark Dungeon,
Tsar Vislav's Palace,
Golden Apple Kingdom,
Russia

Chief Dungeon Guard's Office,
Tsar Vislav's Palace,
Golden Apple Kingdom,
Russia

7th June 1476

Dear Mr Stepanov,

My name is Prince Vasily and I am writing to you because I am very concerned about conditions in this dungeon and would like to see an improvement. In this letter, I will explain to you my reasons for asking for our surroundings to be improved and I hope that you will be able to help me. Ideally, my brother and I would like to be moved to another, more suitable, place of imprisonment.

Firstly, I would like to say that I am fearful for my own health and that of my brother in this appalling environment. (several possible answers)

Another reason I think we should be moved from here concerns the food we are provided with. It is inedible and we will surely die without a more nourishing diet. (several possible answers)

For the reasons mentioned above, I really feel I need to be transferred from this ghastly and distressing dungeon environment. I hope that you will give careful consideration to my request to improve conditions for myself and my brother, Dmitry. Thank you for taking the time to read my letter.

Yours sincerely,

Prince Vasily