

Welcome to your first online RSE lesson!

Friday 8th January 2021

L.O: To understand how rules and expectations apply within our lives.

Starter Task:

Read through the "15 rules to live by" list.

- Do you agree with these rules?
Why?
- Do you agree with the order of the rules? Why?
- Would you add or remove any rules?
Which ones?

Most Important

Least
Important

15 rules to live by.

1. Love yourself
2. Be kind to others
3. Do your best
4. Consider others
5. Keep your promises
6. Share your heart
7. Open up to new things and new perspectives
8. Share your laughter
9. Speak truths
10. Express gratitude
11. Never give up.
12. Say "I love you."
13. Laugh at yourself
14. Smile often
15. Live more than you did yesterday.

Is there a difference between?

&

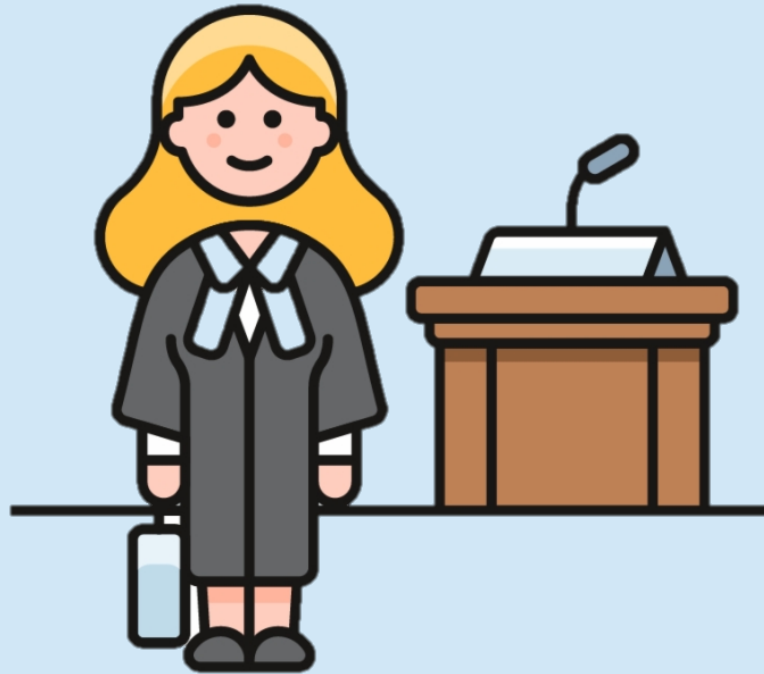

A rule is something that must be followed by a certain group of people (e.g. children in a school).

A law has to be followed by every person in that country.

Why do you think we need laws?
Try to share your ideas with someone at home!

You may have said:

- To keep people safe.
- To prevent unacceptable behaviours and ideas.
- To ensure businesses are acting fairly.
- To provide a sense of equality.
- To solve problems.

Quick Vote

“Laws only exist to stop people from having fun”

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=cKJwdSAotK4>

Watch the video and decide whether the statements are true or false.

Most laws are made by parliament.

Laws are only created by politicians.

Laws are made in response to societal changes.

Most laws are made by parliament.

TRUE

Laws are only created by politicians.

FALSE

Laws are made in response to societal changes.

TRUE

Three key stakeholders need to be involved in order for a new law to be passed.

MPs who work in the House of Commons.

Members of society who are experts in various industries who work in the House of Lords.

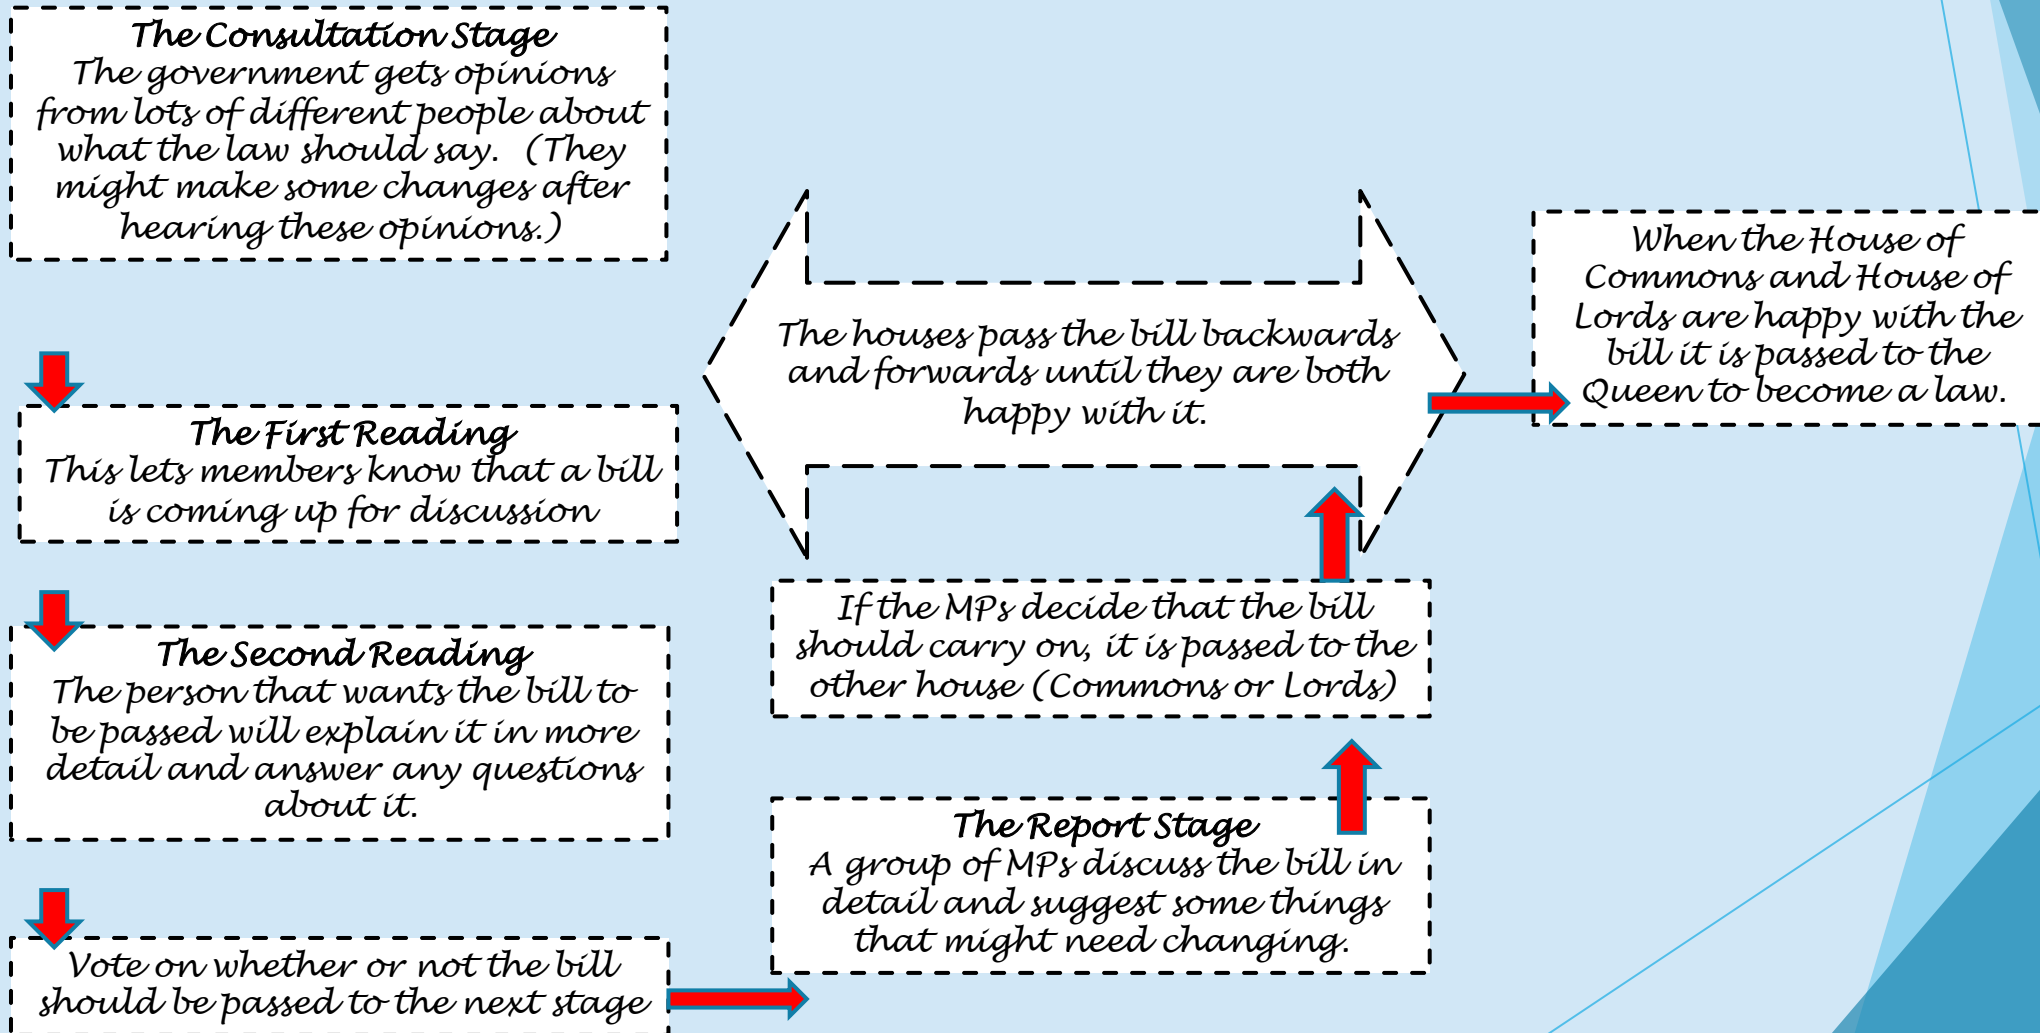

The Queen signs off a proposed law if both the House of commons and Lords agree.

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=DZ-lDLgISnc>

Watch this second video to see how laws are made in the UK!

How laws are made in the UK:

Re-vote !

“Laws only exist to stop people from having fun”

Extra: Weird laws from history.

https://www.youtube.com/watch?time_continue=48&v=gwXrrLENX2E&feature=emb_logo

Huge congratulations!!

You have completed your first week of online learning!

We are so proud of you working hard at home and can't wait to keep seeing your work.

Have a great weekend 😊