

THURSDAY 14TH JANUARY

LO: To be able to describe feelings

Don't forget to send any work to gdearle@kingsavenue.Lambeth.sch.uk 😊

Feelings are very important in diary writing.

- Can you figure out how these people are feeling? Write a sentence to describe pretending that you are that person. I'll do the first one for you...

1)

Today I woke up and my Mum had my favourite breakfast waiting on the table for me. I was thrilled and so happy.

2)

3)

4)

Because we are in Year 2 we can use even better adjectives and more than one!

Can you think of better adjectives for these words? How many can you think of? (Use a thesaurus online to help you if you need to!)

- 1) Sad
- 2) Happy
- 3) Worried
- 4) Angry

The Three Billy Goats Gruff

- How do you think the small Billy Goat Gruff would be feeling when he was turned away?
- How do you think the troll would be feeling when the goats were trying to get onto his land?

Your task today...

- Pretend you are the characters from The Three Billy Goats Gruff.
- Can you write a short paragraph saying only how you are feeling (not the whole diary entry!) Don't forget to use expanded noun phrases to describe and challenge yourself by using two adjectives with a comma in the middle.

The characters:

- 1) Small Billy Goat Gruff
- 2) Medium sized Billy Goat Gruff
- 3) Large Billy Goat Gruff
- 4) The Troll
