Watch Alma to 3.08

<https://www.literacyshed.com/alma.html>

Alma has gone wandering off in the streets alone and has now gone missing. Today, we are going to be creating a Missing Person poster.

What would be included on the poster?

MISSING
PERSON'S NAME

Who would be worried about Alma? What could they do to find her?

What parts of her appearance are noticeable?

In order to add detail to our writing, we can form lists using a colon.
The semi-colons also add clarity to our lists.

Using a colon:

The sentence before the colon must make sense

e.g. Alma's outfit was one of her favourites: grey cargo trousers; a baby-pink, sleeveless body warmer; as well as her winter scarf, mittens and bobble hat.

NOT

Alma was wearing: grey cargo trousers; a baby-pink, sleeveless body warmer; as well as her winter scarf, mittens and bobble hat.

For example:

The sentence before the colon must make sense.

e.g. Alma was last seen walking in the streets of the downtown area:
she was seen crossing over the main, central bridge; running through the park; as well as going past the library, museum and shopping centre.

Have a read through the model text below, then have a go at writing your own missing poster. Use the Y6 Friday English Scaffold and the word mats at the end of the slideshow to help you!

Missing!

Alma

Age: 9

Missing since Tuesday 7th January 2020

Last seen on Tuesday 7th January 2020, Alma Ellis Petrova, is a nine-year-old female whose location is currently unknown. She is an average height for a girl her age (approximately 1.35m) with straw-blond hair, striking bottle green eyes and a pale complexion. Her parents have confirmed that when she left her house, she was wearing her favourite outfit: baggy, grey trousers; a coral-pink, hooded bodywarmer over a long-sleeved top; complete with a matching scarf, warm mittens and sky-blue bobble hat. Obviously, there is a strong possibility that this may have changed in the six days she has been absent.

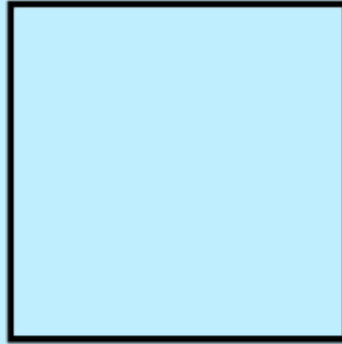

Understandably, her parents are extremely worried and have commented that it is unlike her to wander too far away (particularly on her own), which indicates that she could still be in close proximity to Kovek's city centre. She was returning from a play date at her friend's house and has been known to take shortcuts through narrow side streets on her way home, so she may have been seen skipping slightly off the beaten path. It has been reported that her name was written on a graffiti-filled wall in an alleyway just off of the High street, although it is unclear whether this is a new or old.

If you have seen Alma, or have any information pertaining to her location, please call the helpline below. It is imperative that she be found as soon as possible.
