

Hi all :)

Hope you had a lovely Christmas and New Year! We know this is a very strange time but want you to know that your teachers are here to help and support you.

We hope to see you back in school very soon!

Welcome to your first English lesson, work through the slides and send your finished work to your class teacher!

L.O: To use inferences to inform plausible predictions

- To use auditory clues to draw inferences
- To use my existing knowledge of story writing
- To make plausible predictions

Find the video, Alma on the link below:

<https://www.literacyshed.com/alma.html>

Click play, then CLOSE the web page so you CANNOT see the video. JUST LISTEN!

Listen to the story and on a whiteboard or piece of paper, write down the sounds that you hear:

Think about what might be making each of these sounds.
Choose at least 6 sounds from you can make a plausible prediction.

*Plausible - Seems reasonable or probable

Use your inference skills to help you! Imagine yourself in the situation and think about what you know about the world.

Think about what might be making each of these sounds.

Choose at least 6 sounds from you can make a plausible prediction.

In books or on a piece of paper:

*Plausible - Seems reasonable or probable

You can use subordinate clauses to start your predictions:

I SAW A WABUB

As I heard _____, this makes me think _____.

Due to hearing _____, I think that _____.

Since I heard _____, I believe that _____.

Now, listen to Alma's message.

Does the message help you with your predictions?

What do you want to find out?

What questions could you ask Alma?

In your books, write the subtitle:

Questions that I want to ask Alma

Make a list of at least 6 questions that you want to find out the answer to!

Only use closed questions which have a YES or NO answer.

Are you _____? Did you _____? Have you _____?

If you are at home, send your work now to your teacher and they will answer your questions!

If you are in school, Alma can now answer your questions.

Your teacher will know the answer!

Yes

No

In School:

Using the sounds that you heard and Alma's answers, can you write your prediction for what happened in the story?

Make sure to use your inferences and explain why with evidence.

After listening to the video and asking Alma questions, I think that _____ because _____.

Additionally, I believe that _____.

Some people think that _____; others think that _____.

Well done!

We can't wait to see how you are getting on 😊

Please send your finished work to your class teacher:
